

principals speak

» The government needs to stop interfering with the guidelines every year. There should be a uniform policy so that parents don't get confused. The admission guidelines keep changing and both schools and parents are harassed.

MANOHAR LAL, principal,
Delhi Public School,
Mathura Road

» Parents should be counselled regarding admission guidelines. They should be told to give priority to neighbourhood schools. Most parents are concerned more about brands than the school's merit.

ROOHA PATHAK,
principal, MMT Public School

